

THE CHIMES

Starkdale
Presbyterian Church

February 2011

Dear Starkdale Family,
(members and friends),

I continue to pray for all-member-participation in ministry. Can you imagine what it would be like if all our talents and heartfelt convictions are put to a good Christian use?

We have six commissions (Administration, Evangelism, Fellowship, Nurture, Outreach, and Worship). Each of these commissions is in great need for workers. A list of the responsibilities of each commission, which may be copied and sent to you, is available at the church office.

Here is an idea: If you haven't yet been asked to serve in any capacity, ask for the list and read it, see where your talents may be used effectively, and contact the church office. Let Rose Mary, our office manager, know about the ministry in which you wish to serve. She in turn would contact the chair of that ministry and submit your name.

There is a saying that I heard once or twice in America, which makes great sense: "If followers lead, leaders will follow." This is true of any organization including the church. When church members are enthused about ministry and are willing to give of themselves selflessly to the work of the church, church leaders have no choice but to desire their input and seek to use their God-given talents.

I urge you then to help Starkdale acquire the enthusiasm of the early church (Acts 2:42-47), to let the enthusiasm of the early church fuel us with the power of God's Spirit and energize us to do things we never thought possible. Let us permit this fire of the Holy Spirit to spread wildly among us and into our communities. Let us let the wind of God's Spirit carry its flames to many homes and neighborhoods in our area. Let this fire of God's Spirit keep us from "taking the back seat" and falling into sleep, especially in a time when all the forces of evil are fully awake and working on silencing the voice and ministry of the church. In other words, let us be true followers of Jesus Christ so we may become spiritually contagious so others may desire the saving grace that God has graciously given each of us. Let us receive afresh the power of God's Spirit which, not even Rome with its fame and might could put out.

As a church we will continue to be intentional in our efforts for more evangelism, wider range of Christian fellowship, home visitation by officers and church members, increased financial support, growing opportunities for biblical knowledge and understanding, and community wide mission that would lead many to the Lord.

Thank you for fanning the flame of faith. Thank you for being the type of faithful witnesses that you are. Thank you for being an invaluable part of inviting and introducing many to our church.

I look forward to seeing more and more of this type of ministry in and through Starkdale.

Sincerely,

Philip

EXERCISE FOR PEOPLE OVER 50

Begin by standing on a comfortable surface, where you have plenty of room at each side.

With a 5-lb potato bag in each hand, extend your arms straight out from your sides and hold them there as long as you can. Try to reach a full minute, and then relax.

Each day you'll find that you can hold this position for just a bit longer. After a couple of weeks, move up to 10-lb potato bags.

Then try 50-lb potato bags and then eventually try to get to where you can lift a 100-lb potato bag in each hand and hold your arms straight for more than a full minute.

After you feel confident at that level, put a potato in each bag.

LIBRARY NEWS

The Library Committee has recently compiled a list of Comparative Religion books as well as a couple others to be purchased for the library. If you wish to contribute toward any of these books, please write a check payable to Starkdale Presbyterian Church and mark it "for books". All contributions are tax deductible.

COMPARATIVE RELIGION BOOKS

1. Handbook of Today's Religions by Josh McDowell /1993/Hardcover $16.99 (CBD)

One of the best reference books available on the religions and cults present in our time. Four books are combined into one easy-to-use volume. The four books, which each became a section of the compilation, are: Non Christian Religions; the Occult; Secular Religions; the Cults. Powerful individually, together the books are a powerhouse of vital information for Christians on those worldviews which challenge and attack Christianity. This reference book offers one of the best looks (from a Christian perspective) at each of the various religions and worldviews that now exist.

2. Jesus among Other Gods by Ravi Zacharias /2002 / paperback / $10.99 (CBD price)

No such thing as absolute truth? Christian apologist Ravi Zacharias' work is a brilliant defense of the unique truth of the Christian message. Exposing the futility of Islam, Hinduism and Buddhism, he also highlights his own journey from despair and meaninglessness to the discovery that Jesus is the Way, the Truth and the Life. 195 pages.

3. Correcting the Cults: Expert Responses to Their Scripture Twisting by Norman L. Geisler, Ron Rhodes/ 2005 / paperback / $28.00 (CBD price)

How do cults use scripture to ensnare millions? Discover the ways that Mormonism, Jehovah's Witnesses, the New Age movement, and others misinterpret the Bible to support their own doctrines. Comprehensive, accessible, and intelligent, this reliable resource will equip you to understand aberrant faith systems, reason with their adherents, and point them toward Jesus Christ! Formerly titled When Cultists Ask. 368 pages.

4. The Complete Bible Answer Book (Collector's Edition) by Hank Hanegraaff/ 2009 / Hardcover / $14.99 (CBD price)

Hanegraaff has heard it all! As host of the Bible Answer Man, he interacts with many believers---and non-believers---who are plagued with questions about faith. Now in this beautiful collector's edition, you'll find his rock-solid responses on over 170 topics---including parenting, other religions, fear, sin, and salvation. Includes suggested resources for further exploration. 560 pages.

5. Christianity's Family Tree What Other Christians Believe and Why by Adam Hamilton / 2007 / soft cover / 133 pages $9.60 (Amazon books)

A brief history and major belief of eight Christian denominations and faith traditions are presented: Orthodox, Catholic, Lutheran, Presbyterian, Episcopalian, Baptist, Pentecostal and the United Methodist.

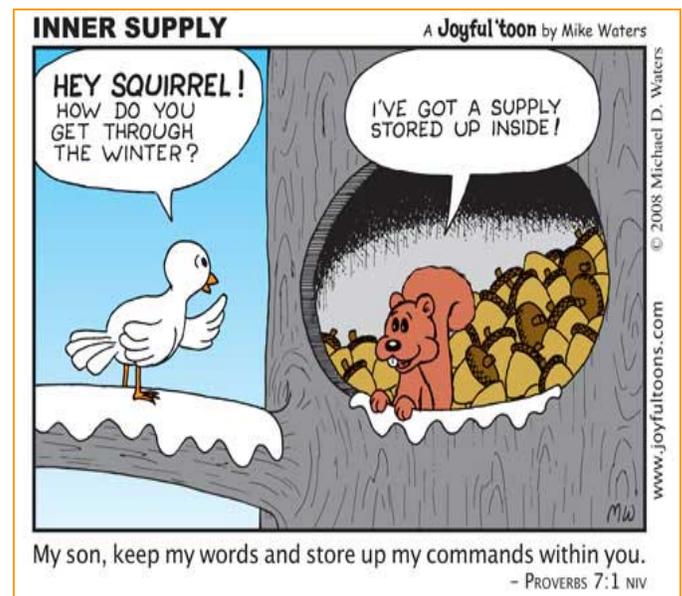

APOLOGETICS

6. Reasonable Faith: The Scientific Case for Christianity by Jay Wile /1997/ Apologia Press/ paperback $10.00 (Amazon books price)

Dr. Jay Wile has a PhD in Nuclear Chemistry and outlines the scientific case for the Christian faith. He demonstrates scientific evidence for the existence of God and the validity of the Bible.

BIBLICAL

7. The Greatest Words Ever Spoken by Steven K. Scott 2008/489 pages/ Hardcover $16.99 CBD price. This easy to read resource presents over 1900 statements of Jesus organized under more than 200 topics. Most verses are quoted from the NIV and are readable for both children and adults. Each section opens with an introduction that guides readers in making the words of Jesus personal and applicable to their lives. This book is a treasure chest of the wisdom of Jesus addressing the crucial issues of life.

Dear Starkdale Friends,
 Thank you so much for all the love and kindness you gave to our dear father Don Firm, during his life and to our entire family after his passing. We are especially grateful to Rev. Makari for his constant support, to Jody Glaub for his hospitable visit and to everyone who attended or helped with the service and luncheon. God bless you all!
 The Firm Family, -Donna, Bob, Ken, Elaine, and Linda.

Dear Friends,

On behalf of the staff, volunteers and clients of Urban Mission, we thank you for your support by donating food items to our Hunger ministries. Your generosity allows us to meet a variety of needs for children, senior citizens and low-income adults and families through a vast array of programs. Thank you again for your kind donation. We wish you a prosperous and happy New Year!
 Sincerely,
 Rev. Bruce Hitchcock, Executive Director

Dear Friends at Starkdale,
 Thank you so much for everything you have done in the last few months. Prayers, calls, visits, and cards have been very much appreciated.
 Hank and Barbara Vinco

A beautiful card was received from Caroline and Jim Dean. It is posted in the fellowship hall on the bulletin board. The inside of the card reads: If only you could hear the prayers that fill each thought of you And all the smiles that warm each memory of the generous things you do, you'd know you're treasured more than words can say. Thank You So Much.
 Caroline and Jim Dean

Dear Mr. Patterson:
 Once again, thank you so much for bringing a group of carolers to entertain our residents. They enjoyed it so very much. You are a blessing our residents look forward to every few months. We wish you a very happy, healthy, and prosperous New Year!
 Sincerely, Nancy Felton, Activity Director
 Sienna Woods Nursing and Rehabilitation

Thank you so much for all the prayers, cards, and phone calls to our family during the time our sister, Marjorie Gelety, was ill and after her death.
 Ella Jane Burns and family.

Dear Church Family,
 Thank you for all of your prayers, visits to the hospital, cards and phone calls during my recovery from heart surgery. I am blessed to be a member of such a loving and caring church family.
 God bless you all.
 "Stu" Stukins

My thanks to everyone who donated Christmas ornaments for the Starkdale Christmas tree which was on display at the Ft. Steuben Mall during the first week of December. Our tree was part of the Big Brothers/Big Sisters tree festival. The Starkdale tree was decorated with all "Christ" themed Christmas ornaments. Our theme was "keeping Christ in Christmas".
 The tree was sold to a young couple in Hopedale, Ohio who is expecting their first baby. All proceeds from the sale of the tree benefit Big Brothers/ Big Sisters of Jefferson County.
 Cindy Sagrilla

From the Sunday, January 16, 2011 Herald-Star

To the editor:

On behalf of the Jefferson County Department of Job and Family Services, Children Services Division, I would like to extend my deepest gratitude to the following individuals and groups who donated to the Christmas for Kids Campaign.

The list includes Deborah Oberlin of Toys for Tots; Anita Petrilla, Steubenville and Wintersville NALC, APWU Rural Carriers; Wal-Mart; Dave Cook and Applebee's; Tami Cashioi; Barbara Matosh; Bob and Cindy Sagrilla; Starkdale Presbyterian Church; Frank (who would not give his last name); Carol Hess and Carmella Gentile of Italian-American Culture Club.

Because of your love and generosity, you brought joy to the hearts of approximately 288 children.

LOVE DIVINE

Charles Wesley and John Zundel

Love divine, all love excelling, Joy of Heav'n to earth come down!
Fix in us Thy humble dwelling; All thy faithful mercies crown.
Jesus, thou art all compassion, Pure, unbounded love thou art;
Visit us with Thy salvation; Enter ev'ry trembling heart.

Breathe, O breathe Thy loving Spirit Into ev'ry troubled breast!
Let us all in Thee inherit, Let us find that second rest.
Take away our bent to sinning, Alpha and Omega be;
End of faith, as its beginning, Set our hearts at liberty.

Come, Almighty to deliver, Let us all thy life receive;
Suddenly return, and never, Nevermore Thy temples leave:
Thee we would be always blessing, Serve Thee as Thy hosts above,
Pray, and praise Thee without ceasing, Glory in Thy perfect love.

Finish then Thy new creation; Pure and spotless let us be;
Let us see Thy great salvation, Perfectly restored in Thee:
Changed from glory into glory, till in Heav'n we take our place,
Till we cast our crowns before Thee, Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

John Zundel

John Zundel was born in 1815 at Hochdorf, Germany. He began his professional career as organist at St. Anne's Lutheran Church and as bandmaster of the Imperial Horse Guards in St. Petersburg (now Leningrad, Russia). He came to the United States in 1847. After playing briefly at other churches he began his great career at the Plymouth Church in Brooklyn on January 1, 1850. There, with the famous Henry Ward Beecher, the great orator, they drew not only New Yorkers, but hundreds of visitors from other states, Sunday after Sunday. Attending the Plymouth Church in Brooklyn was an experience to write home about, with Beecher's powerful sermons, Zundel's inspired organ playing and the best congregational singing of its day. While in the United States John Zundel published three books of music. Of his last, Christian Heart Songs (1870), Zundel said "It has required almost a lifetime to compose its contents". In 1877 John Zundel retired and returned to his native land.

Charles Wesley

Charles Wesley, the poet of Methodism, was the eighteenth of nineteen children born to the distinguished Anglican minister Rev. Samuel Wesley and his wife Susanna. Born at Epworth, Lincolnshire, England, Charles, with his brother John (who was three years older) were destined to have a profound effect upon the world in which we live.

At Oxford, the brothers with George Whitefield formed the Oxford Holy Club to counter prevailing attitudes. Its members were expected to follow a disciplined approach to Bible study, worship, communion and visitation to the sick and imprisoned. Because of their methodical practice of religious concepts the members of the Holy Club were soon referred to as Methodists by fellow students.

Charles obtained his M.A. from Oxford in 1732 and in 1735 was ordained a deacon and elder in the Church of England. Later in 1735 thirteen members of the Holy Club (including John and Charles) set sail for Savannah, Georgia, where they planned to work as missionaries. Aboard ship they met a group of Moravians and John Wesley became so interested in their hymn singing he began to study German, making translations of their German hymns for his group of "Methodists". Charles returned to England in 1736 and John followed two years later. Back in England, both Charles and John became friends of the Moravian leader Count von Zinzendorf. In 1738 each had dynamic personal conversion experiences and full of evangelical zeal, they set out to proclaim the message of Jesus to England, Ireland, and Wales. Charles gave the movement the wings of music and developed its practical theology in his hymns. During his life Charles wrote some 6,500 hymns giving wings to the Methodist movement.

This letter was received from a youth who has been helped and blessed by the Starkdale congregation. The Chimes staff thought it to the congregation's advantage to read the letter in order that you might know that every little act of kindness is appreciated by someone.

Dear Starkdale Church,

I just want to start off by saying Happy New Year!! Also, I want to thank you and all the Starkdale Church for the cards, prayers, and all the things I have received. I really enjoyed it. I also want to let you guys know I having been turn my life towards God. Every night I ask him to forgive me for all the people I have let down, hurt and disrespect them. I am a whole new person when I am in my cell. I sit and wonder why do I treat people? Why am I in prison—all the things I have done to put me here was not wroth going to juvenile prison. I also Thank God for every morning for waking me up to a brand new day and a brand new start. I look at every day that I do good as progress and a leader for those who are still struggling. I want to be an example for people, and let them know it's never too late to open your eyes and change. There is always time to change. If no one wants to help people change like I see myself starting to do—I will. I don't want to keep going down their road call failure. I want to take the next exit to a successful life and a new me. There is always room for improvement. I didn't make level 3. I had a chance to, but I felt another two weeks I should be ready to take on all the expectations for level 3 that I need to. I feel I am not yet ready.

I have been in counseling—doing good there also. I have NA and AA meetings. My family comes to visit me on Sundays.

Thanks for everything,

Sincerely,

We are unable to publish this young person's name because he/she is a minor. This person does make requests for some personal items in their letter. If you'd like to know more about them, or would like to help in some way you may contact Bob or Cindy Sagrilla for further information. Please pray for this young person. 740-317-2024.

The Starkdale Soup Kitchen crew staffed by Andy Celestin, Jo Copeland, John Criss, Robbie France, Lillian Kestner, and Carol Oklok served 57 people on January 13, 2011. Provided for the meals were:

- 200 pieces of chicken
- 3 bags mashed potatoes
- 12 cans of peas
- Gravy from chicken
- 24 cans of mixed fruit
- 10 boxes of corn bread mix
- 4 cakes
- Beverages

The Starkdale Congregation—making a difference in our community and our world.

YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

From: Sienna Woods Nursing and Rehabilitation

Dear Starkdale Church Parishoner:

I am writing this letter in order to find some valuable volunteers. Not much is required, just the willingness to serve and a little time. We are in need of someone to come in once a week to do manicures. We have really felt the void since Sandy Grimm has relocated. It can be one person or a group of two or three people. We will furnish the supplies; nail files, polish, gloves, etc.. We could have a "beauty club". We know you are not professionals. It doesn't matter. The residents' nails are trimmed. They just need filed and polished, and sometimes just someone to talk to.

If you have never visited our facility, we would welcome the opportunity. Come and get a feel for our residents.

We also need volunteers just to take a few minutes a week, 15 minutes per resident and just talk and visit. Once again, it's not a lot to ask, but it is far more rewarding and appreciated than you can imagine.

Do you know how to play cards? We have several residents that are interested in card games. We also would like to form a men's club. Are you a member of a club that you could incorporate into our facility? Do you have an interest or something you could demonstrate to our residents? Nothing is too small. Please call me if you would like more information on volunteering. Thank you so much.

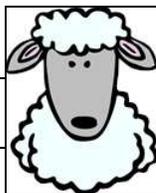

Sincerely, Nancy Felton

FLOCK TALK

Mike Freshwater, grandson of Dick and Beverly Wyman, and a 5th year senior in Civil Engineering at The University of Cincinnati, spent his Christmas break with the Habitat for Humanity in Spartanburg, SC.

Gabrielle Peterson, 7th grade student at Harding Middle School, earned a 4.0 grade point average for the fall semester. She was also the captain of the volley ball team. She is the daughter of Pam and Tom Peterson, granddaughter of John and Marlene Rhueff and Po and Carole Peterson. Congratulations Gabrielle!

Congratulations to Misty Brake who was once again listed on the "Principal's List" for her wonderful grades in the fall semester at Indian Creek High School. Way to Go Misty!!!

The CHIMES newsletter staff is in need of more help. It doesn't take a lot of time or energy, just a few hours each month to help write, edit, and gather news for the CHIMES! Call the church office at 264-5309 for further information.

PER CAPITA ANNOUNCED

The per capita this year is $26.00 per individual member. This amount needs to be paid over and above your regular pledge or contribution. It goes directly to the Upper Ohio Valley Presbytery. Administration will have an article in the Chimes next month to explain what the Presbytery does with this money.

ST. VINCENT DEPAUL CRAFT SHOW

The Wintersville Catholic Parishes are holding their annual St. Vincent DePaul Valentine's Extravaganza. This fundraiser was a huge success last year and helped a lot of people in need during these tough economic times.

Please join us Sunday February 13, 2011 from 12:00—4:00 at the Blessed Sacrament Social Hall, Sargus Hall, 852 Main Street, Wintersville, OH

It is a perfect time to buy that special gift for Valentine's Day and help support St. Vincent DePaul. The Society distributes free food monthly to qualified households in the Wintersville/Bloomington areas. In 2010, households received over 24,000 balanced and planned meals packed by the volunteers. The Society also gives out Easter baskets and candy, Thanksgiving baskets, and Christmas baskets and childrens' gifts. Distribution information is available by calling: 740-264-9574
