STARKDALE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
NEWSLETTER

Believing God's Word
Serving God's People.

Dear Starkdale Family (members and friends),

I trust, as the summer days come to an end, that you are refreshed and renewed and ready to resume your normal schedule. No doubt, while summer is fun, the extras most of us do during the summer (i.e. vacations, picnics, outings, family gatherings, additional cooking, yard work, house-repair and remodeling, gardening, entertaining of children and grandchildren ...etc.) can exhaust us and make us say "thank God the summer is over." But this is one of those experiences we wouldn't have it any other way. As exhausting as the summer might have been, to many of us it was all worth it. God will help us recover and even make us look forward to doing it again and again.

Here at the church, our summer was very busy. The good news is that our church attendance and programs held up very well. Thank you for making sure that spring, summer, winter or fall, God and the church are top priorities.

As we approach the fall, here are some ministries for which to look forward, and regarding which the church needs not only your participation, but also your help:

September 12 - Communion Sunday
September 18 - Saturday - Chicken Grill

September 19 - Youth Service Sunday - 11 a.m. service only; the 8:30 service will continue as usual
Presbytery Meeting - September 28-St. Clairsville
October 2 - Saturday - Harvest caroling
October 3- Sunday - World Wide communion/Hymn-fest in the evening
October 15-16 - Evangelism Retreat

If you can help in any of the above listed ministries, the commission in charge will be very grateful. All you have to do is contact our church office (264-5309); Rose Mary will then submit your name to the persons in charge of the event.

Romans 12:4-8 urges us to be intentional in making a good use of our God-given talents and skills. Please reflect on the following verses and ask yourself in which area of ministry according to Romans, may I be used effectively:

"Just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we who are many form one body, and each member belongs to all the others. We have different gifts, according to the grace given us. If a person's gift is prophesying, let him (or her) use it in proportion to his (or her) faith. If it is serving, let him (or her) serve; if it is teaching, let him (or her) teach; if it is encouraging, let him (or her) encourage; if it is contributing to the needs of others, let him (or her) give generously; if it is leadership, let him (or her) govern diligently; if it is showing mercy, let him (or her) do it cheerfully.

The biblical doctrine of the "priesthood of all believers" must remain our goal at Starkdale.
God bless,

Philip Makari, Pastor

The Fall schedule of activities will resume in September. Prayer meeting continues on Monday evenings at 7 P.M., Men's Prayer Breakfast will be held the second Tuesday of the month at 7:30 A.M., Dart Baseball is every Tuesday at 6:00 P.M., Starkdale Presbyterian Women will meet on the fourth Tuesday of the month at noon. The newly formed Youth choir will begin rehearsal on Wednesday, September 1st from 6:30 to 7:10 P.M. Adult choir rehearsal is on Wednesday evening at 7:15 P.M. AND don't forget the regular schedule, Bible Studies on Tuesday at 10:00 A.M., and Wednesday at 6:00 P.M, Sunday School for all ages at 9:45 A.M. and our two worship services on Sunday morning at 8:30 A.M. and 11:00 A.M. For more information on any of these events you may call the church office at 264-5309.

The Youth Page

The Starkdale Youth Group held their annual 2010 Senior Night and Awards Banquet on July 10, 2010. The banquet was held at Drover's Inn, the choice of our only senior this year, Justin Wilson. The seniors each year choose were we go, and we must say it was a good choice. The awards given at the banquet were as follows:

1. New Golden Friend Award-Samantha McDonald, for being the newest of our SYG friends and in this adding to our circle of friendship doing God's work.
2. Humanitarian & Evangelism Award—Gabrielle Peterson, for her ability to fill her basket first for Pennies-for-a-Purpose and shop till she dropped. Also for bringing in the most potential new members to the SYG.
3. Nut Spoon Baseball Award—Miranda Peterson, for longest nut spooned hit in Nut Spoon Baseball history.
4. Bright Idea Award—David Kinney, for his creative thinking and the bright ideas he shares with the SYG to further their endeavors in doing God's work. David was not with us Awards night and his award was respectively received by leader Rick Patterson.
5. Golden Mouse Award—Daniel Hayes, for his ability to be the Web Master for the SYG and when learning new music to find the lyrics to most songs.
6. Wildest Dart Pitch-Daniel Hayes, He's the wild thing! Floor and door, ceiling and wall, with his wild pitch he'll hit them all. His perfect pitch was NEVER the same, Dart Baseball is the name of the game. He's the Wild Thing!!!
7. Bocce Tournament Winner and Golden Bocce Ultimate Toss Award-Bethanie Bube, for outstanding Bocce skills in a tournament game and her ultimate bocce toss.
8. Bocce Tournament Winner—Courtne Bube, Misty Brake, and Kayla Huff for outstanding Bocce skills in a tournament game.
9. Golden Hockey Puck Awards—Bethanie Bube, for her outstanding defensive plays in SYG winter snow hockey and her exhilarating butterfly stop. Also, Justin Wilson, for outstanding offensive plays in SYG winter snow hockey, and most goals scored.
10. 4th Street Health Center Prince and Princess Award—Justin Wilson, for being the SYG Prince of the 4th Street Health Gala and Misty Brake, for being the SYG Princess of the 4th Street Health Center Gala and for all the hard work they have done for the center through the years.
11. Cook of the Year Award—Rick Patterson, for his great ideas for Sunday night snacks. He's the cook!!

The last award for the night was a most special one-Senior of the Year Award. We were honoring that night our SYG senior, Justin Wilson. Justin has been a dedicated worker doing God's work. He has been instrumental in mentoring our younger members and an excellent role model. We pray for the very best for Justin in his future endeavors and look forward to his return visits to help us when he can.

God has truly blessed us with the most precious youth. Young people who are not afraid to go the extra mile to help to do God's work and be proud to give him all glory. It has been both an honor and a privilege to work with such a special group of young people. Thank you God, for each of these young people.

STARKDALE MUSIC NEWS

Stephan C. Carroll will be joining the staff of Starkdale as organist on September 5. He has held music positions at various churches in the Wheeling area since 1995. He has served as organist, music leader, director of music and worship in traditional and contemporary services. With fifteen years experience in the field of church music and with extensive experience orchestrating and arranging religious hymns, choral anthems, and contemporary Christian music, he will add much to enhance our congregation's worship with the highest quality of religious music. He has studied piano extensively from contemporary to jazz, with an emphasis in classical and sacred music and has composed and arranged various compositions for choirs, soloists, and orchestra.

Steve was featured as Keyboard Magazine's September 2006 "Unsigned Artist of the Month." He was the Soundtrack Composer for independent short film "Tears for the Son" by Roll Twenty Productions - featured in the Tribeca Film Festival. In 2007 his entry in the Turner Classic Movies annual Young Film Composers Competition placed in the top twenty of over 800 entries worldwide.

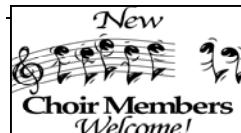

He has been the webmaster for www.starkdale.org since its inception.

On a personal note, he is the son of a Methodist pastor and professes his faith in Jesus Christ. He has recently moved to Steubenville from the Wheeling area. Please join us in welcoming him to our Starkdale family.

WELCOME TO STARKDALE—
STEVE CARROLL

It's that time of Starkdale Choir relaxing summer

year again, when the returns. We've had a relaxing summer and look forward to singing at the annual church picnic on Sunday, August 29. I hope that many new faces will appear on Wednesday nights from 7:15 to 8:30. If no one stares at you when you sing Happy Birthday, we would welcome you as a new member. If people do stare at you when you sing, but you have a burning desire to praise God by singing in the choir, Eleanor Hewitt and I can coach you until you are ready. We have both taught voice for many years and it is quite possible to sing in tune. Most of the time, it's not that people can't sing, but that they aren't hearing correctly. For example, many years ago, after singing at a funeral in Weirton, I was approached by the pastor conducting the service. She began talking to me with great embarrassment and told me that she had been humiliated when her mother turned off the PA system during the hymn at Sunday services. She asked if I could help her. We began a series of lessons to help her sing in tune. With hard work and determination, she reached her goal and sang a solo in her church six months later. Her mom was very surprised.

For the time being, I will continue to volunteer as your adult choir director. I am also going to start a children's choir for grades 1 to 8. Rehearsals will be held on Wednesdays from 6:30 to 7:10 beginning on September 1. High schoolers are welcomed in the adult choir. If enough high schoolers are interested in having their own choir, we will start a choir just for them. My experience includes 15 years of directing 3 youth choirs at the Cove Presbyterian Church in Weirton as well as adult handbell choirs.

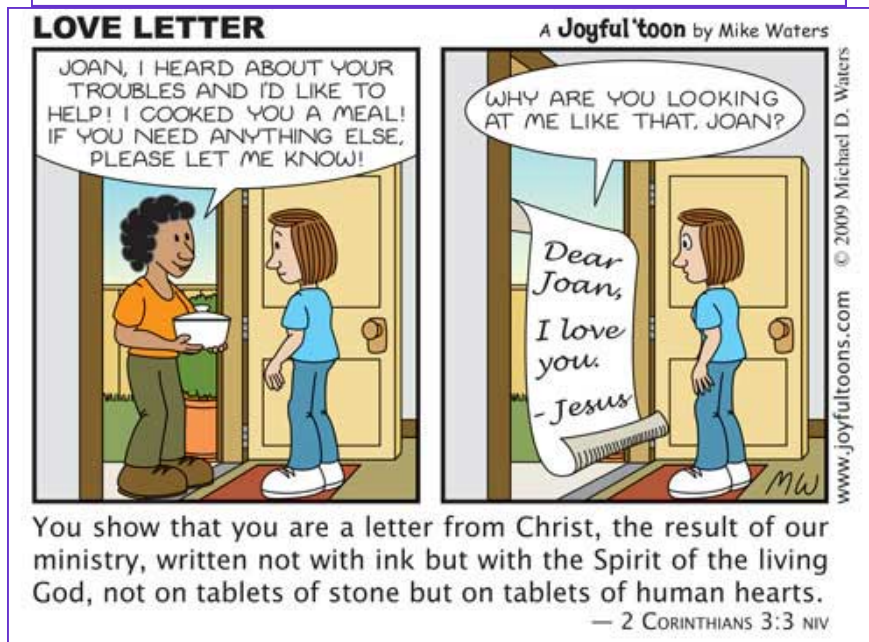

Music ministry is important in the life of the church and in the life of individuals. Music chosen wisely can teach scripture. When children sing "This is the day that the Lord has made, I will rejoice and be glad in it," they have committed Psalm 118 to their hearts. When we all sing, "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you," Matthew 6:33 becomes part of how we work through the priorities of our lives. Rehearsing and singing as a unit also teaches team building and the need for excellence in serving God. I promise you that the music chosen will adhere to the word of God.

Please continue to pray for our music ministry. I thank you for the notes and comments regarding this past year. It is a pleasure serving the congregation of Starkdale.

Carolyn Glaub

LOVE ONE ANOTHER

CHRISTIAN HOSPITALITY

Luke 14:1-14

One Sabbath, when Jesus went to eat in the house of a prominent Pharisee, he was being carefully watched. There in front of him was a man suffering from dropsy. Jesus asked the Pharisees and experts in the law, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath or not?" But they remained silent. So taking hold of the man, he healed him and sent him away.

Then he asked them, "If one of you has a son or an ox that falls into a well on the Sabbath day, will you not immediately pull him out?" ⁶And they had nothing to say.

When he noticed how the guests picked the places of honor at the table, he told them this parable: "When someone invites you to a wedding feast, do not take the place of honor, for a person more distinguished than you may have been invited. If so, the host who invited both of you will come and say to you, 'Give this man your seat.' Then, humiliated, you will have to take the least important place. But when you are invited, take the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he will say to you, 'Friend, move up to a better place.' Then you will be honored in the presence of all your fellow guests. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

Then Jesus said to his host, "When you give a luncheon or dinner, do not invite your friends, your brothers or relatives, or your rich neighbors; if you do, they may invite you back and so you will be repaid. But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, and you will be blessed. Although they cannot repay you, you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

(Taken from information from the Sunday, August 29th sermon):

SERMON SYNOPSIS: This sermon deals with the subject of showing hospitality to strangers. During his ministry, Jesus was intentional in reaching out to the poor, the forsaken, and those rejected by society (those who did not meet the social standards of the community in which they lived), the captives of bad habits, and the demon-possessed. In today's New Testament text, Jesus shows us that welcoming such peoples to our gatherings and tables has its own rewards at the time of our resurrection. First, we need to understand that it is by the grace of God that we are blessed to have what we have and to live the comfortable lives that we live. Second, we need to remind ourselves that at any given moment we can become the type of people listed above (i.e. the despised and rejected). Third, our blessings are to be shared with all, especially with those not related or connected to us in any way. Fourth, loving people and showing them God's love through the things we share with them is the greatest witness any Christian can perform.

“Savior, Like a Shepherd Lead Us”

Words: Anonymous

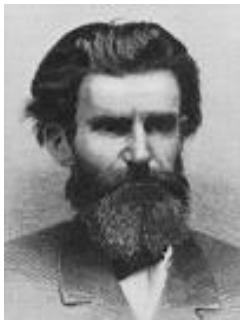

Music: William B. Bradbury

Savior, like a shepherd lead us,
Much we need Thy tender care;
In Thy pleasant pastures feed us,
For our use Thy folds prepare:
Blessed Jesus, Blessed Jesus,
Thou hast bought us, Thine we are;

We are Thine; do Thou befriend us,
Be the Guardian of our way;
Keep Thy flock, from sin defend us,
Seek us when we go astray:
Blessed Jesus, Blessed Jesus,
Hear Thy children when they pray;

Thou hast promised to receive us,
Poor and sinful though we be;
Thou hast mercy to relieve us,
Grace to cleanse, and pow’r to free:
Blessed Jesus, Blessed Jesus,
Early let us turn to Thee;

Early let us seek Thy favor;
Early let us do Thy will;
Blessed Lord and only Savior,
With Thy love our bosoms fill:
Blessed Jesus, Blessed Jesus,
Thou hast loved us, love us still

William Bradbury—Wrote the music to many hymns including “Jesus Loves Me” and “Just As I Am” (1816-1868)

William Bradbury was born at York, Maine. His father a veteran of the Revolutionary War, was a choir leader. William went to Boston when he was fourteen and lived at the home of Sumner Hill, a musician and teacher. While there, he entered the Boston Academy of Music and joined Lowell Mason’s Choir at the Bowdoin Street Church. Within a short time he became organist at several small churches in succession, until he reached the Baptist Tabernacle in New York City. Here, he also conducted singing classes much like those of his teacher, the renown Lowell Mason in Boston.

In 1847, Bradbury took his family to Europe and studied music in Leipzig, Germany. Upon his return to New York he devoted his time to teaching, conducting musical conventions, composing and editing books. In 1854 William, with his brother established the Bradbury Piano Company which later became the Knabe Piano Company. William Bradbury was associated with the publishing of fifty-nine collections of sacred and secular music. He also composed a number of glee books and the Devotional Hymn And Tune Book for Baptist churches. (Quoted from One hundred & one famous hymns p. 136 by Charles Johnson)

Though the source of this hymn’s words was anonymous, there is an obvious reference to the 23rd Psalm. At our recent service at the Carriage Inn, Pastor Philip’s sermon referred to the promises in this psalm as a better Life Insurance Policy than the ones we can buy in this world.

CALL THE PRAYER CHAIN

Over 20 years ago, Doris Barnhouse and Frances Dornbush developed the Prayer Chain at Starkdale Presbyterian Church. The chain is a telephone tree consisting of volunteer groups. Each volunteer prayer group has a captain and five members of Starkdale women who pray for any requested aid.

Prayers are requested for anyone, anywhere, in need, for healing, sorrow, ease of suffering, blessings, a new life, troubles, good deeds, young, old, or the indifferent.

Requests for prayers should be phoned into the chairpersons. They will relay the message to the captains and the prayer chain will begin. Each person will offer a prayer after the phoning is accomplished.

Do you or someone you know have a need, a problem or a worry? Call today: DeDe Foley can be reached at 282-5074 or call Helen Unsold, co-chair, at 264-4295.

Menu: ham, yams, green beans, cole slaw, cake, and beverages.

Work Crew: Ella Jane Burns, Andy Celestin, John Criss, and Robbie France.

August 12, 2010

Served—76 people

Menu: Hot dogs, macaroni salad, baked beans, watermelon

Work Crew: Ella Jane Burns, Andy Celestin, Robbie France, Joyce Palmer

New helpers are always welcome. Please contact the church office or Mr. Andy Celestin if you'd like to join the Soup Kitchen team.

One way to remember Denise and the team is to consider the daily routine changes they will encounter. Below are recipes that your family may like to try during the time of the missionary trip. Learning about the culture is a great way for the children to develop an interest in missions.

Sweet Potato Pudding

2 large sweet potatoes, peeled and chopped

2 to 3 teaspoons honey

2 Tablespoons margarine

1 egg separated

Rind and juice of one orange.

Preheat oven to 375°. Place the sweet potatoes in a saucepan of boiling water and cook until they are soft, about 10 minutes. Put in a bowl and mash. Add all the other ingredients except the egg white and mix them together. In a separate bowl, beat egg white until stiff, fold into first mixture. Spoon into a 9 inch casserole and bake for about 45 minutes or until golden brown.

MALAWI MISSION TRIP REPORT

Well I think everyone is anxiously awaiting our trip to Malawi, Africa. A large banner from our Presbytery to the Presbytery in Malawi is in the process of being made. Everyone has had their shots and all monies have been paid. Some cash has been sent ahead of us to Kay Day, our missionary in Blantyre, Malawi so she can convert the dollars into Kwacha to have ready for us. We will also be leaving a gift of cash there for the Presbytery. Not a lot of money, but at least a "Thank You" gift for having hosted us.

The six of us met together on July 22nd at Froehlich's Classic Corner for dinner and a time just for us to get to know each other better. We each shared our own faith stories and that was really a wonderful way to become more acquainted with who we will be traveling with.

Everyone of us is so unique and God works so wonderfully in each of our lives to bring us to Him.

On Sunday, Sept. 19th, there will be a send off picnic at 2 p.m. at Stone Presbyterian Church in Wheeling. Our respective churches are invited and encouraged to come and share a covered dish dinner with us and also there will be a time of prayer as we are sent off. We leave the next day, Sept. 20th. Our flight is out of Pittsburgh at around noon. Anyone who wants to, please come and enjoy this afternoon with us.

Fried White Ants

1 cup day-old white ants
(these are large termites, in the winged stage).

1/2 cup water

2 T. margarine

Salt to taste

Clean ants by removing wings and any foreign matter. Place insects in salted water and boil over high heat until water has evaporated. Reduce heat and add margarine. Cover and simmer for 3 minutes. Remove from heat and serve immediately.
