CALL TO WORSHIP

God loves everything he has made:

The sparrows, the mountain lions, the fish and the people.

God loves his children:

In success and failure, in sickness and in health, in mediocrity and extraordinary.

God loves us:

He loves us enough to become one of us, enough to suffer along with us, enough to offer new life for us.

God loves us and expects us to love him back with all our heart, soul and mind.

We shall have no other gods before him.

Let us worship God.

He alone is worthy of glory, honor and praise.

(Starkdale's call to worship on Sunday, January 26, 2014)

Dear Starkdale Family (members, friends, and regular worship guests),

Very often people wonder what Presbyterians believe. Some regular visitors to our church are inquiring about what makes us who we are. The following facts are basic to our spiritual convictions, which I hope would help deepen our understanding of our theology.

First, our definitions: The word “theology” is made of two words, combined they mean “the study of God.” Implied, of course, are “the teachings pertaining to the things of God”. The word “Presbyterian” comes for the Greek word “presbeteros” which means “elder”. A Presbyterian is one who belongs to a Reformed Protestant church that conducts its business through representatives, elected by the congregations, to make decisions on behalf of the members. Those representatives are referred to as “elders”. Elders meet monthly and as needed to attend to the physical facilities and spiritual and social needs of the congregation. A Presbyterian church then is a church that is governed by elders elected by the congregation.

Second, our doctrines (i.e. biblical beliefs and spiritual convictions):

- We believe that the Bible in its entirety is God’s Word. The Bible is inspired (meaning God

-breathed or God-given) through his prophets and apostles.

- We believe that God is one, though he reveals himself to us in three Persons. He is over us (as our invisible heavenly Father), with us (as the Son the visible embodiment of the Father, Jesus Christ), and in and through us (as the Holy Spirit).
- We believe that to be saved from sin and eternal death (i.e. hell) is only possible through receiving Jesus Christ as our personal Savior and Lord. Salvation is never through anything we are or anything we do. Salvation is by the grace of God through faith in Jesus Christ and what he has done for us on the cross (as he dies paying the price for our sins).
- We believe that the church is the people of God. Those who sincerely have believed in Jesus Christ (i.e. those who are saved by his death on the cross) are his true church. Sometimes, they are referred to as “the Body of Christ”.
- We believe that the scriptures alone are God’s Word to the church. Jesus Christ alone is the Head and Redeemer of the church. God’s Grace alone (not our own efforts) are the means of the salvation of the church and the way to having eternal life. Faith alone is the assurance by which the church has

THE JOY OF CHRISTMASTIME

WEDDING BELLS

Were ringing on Saturday, December 7, as Denise Miller and Peter Franckhauser were joined in holy matrimony at Holy Family church in Steubenville. Rev. Dr. Philip Makari participated in the beautiful ceremony. Congratulations to Denise and Frank. We wish them a long and happy life together.

Lots of Christmas parties were held to celebrate our Christian unity and joy. The Youth held their party at the Pizza Hut and each youth was presented a gift from Starkdale church. Quilters InC. had a fun party in December. Small gifts were exchanged all around and CarolynLee, teacher, received a gift card to her favorite store— can you guess? From her students.

SPW's Christmas party was cancelled due to inclement weather.

Pat Pendleton knows that real Presbyterians drive John Deere tractors! Thanks Pat for pulling our float again in the Christmas parade!

been saved. And to God alone is the church thankful for its salvation from sin and hell.

- We believe that the Holy Spirit is God indwelling us to empower us to live the righteous life that he intends for his people, to strengthen us in our weakness, to help us grow in our knowledge and experience of God and his word, to comfort us in our time of trouble, and to inspire and motivate us to lead others to the saving grace of Jesus Christ (i.e. evangelism).
- We believe that we are the recipients of eternal life on the very day we confess Jesus Christ as our Savior. By this we mean that once we are saved, we are given the gift of eternal life; and that once we are saved, we can never lose our salvation.
- We believe that Jesus Christ will return one day. On that day, history as we know it will come to an end, evil will be judged and eliminated once and for all, and believers in him will live under his reign forever in an environment free from sin, suffering or dying again.
- We believe that the souls of believers in Jesus Christ will go directly to heaven upon their death, and that the souls of non-believers will go to a place of torment (hell).
- We believe in two sacraments, baptism and communion.

Third, our structure: As mentioned earlier, we are a church that is led by elders, whose responsibility is to oversee the needs, the programs, and the various ministries of the church. The teaching elders are the pastors of the church. The ruling elders are the ones who attend to the leg-work needs of the church, make decisions, organize committees, handling finances ... etc. Elders are also spiritual advisors. They plan for worship, visit with the sick, pray for the people and with them, accompany pastors in some of the pastoral duties ... etc.

Fourth, our constitution: While the Bible is our absolute standard for attending to all the needs of ministry, our constitution is made of two parts: The first is the Book of Confessions (this is a detailed record of our biblical beliefs); the second is the Book of Order (this is a detailed record of how the church shall govern its business). The Book of Order is divided into three sections. One is for governing the church. The second is for the rules of handling worship in decency and order. The third is for procedures used for disciplining anyone (including pastors) who may act in ways that cause dissensions, spread false teachings, or may be guilty of immoral conduct.

Moreover, the Starkdale church administers baptism at any time as is requested for infants or adults, provided that the person has not been baptized before in another church. Communion is administered on the second Sunday of each month except for the month of October when Communion is on the first Sunday (worldwide communion Sunday).

Regular worship guests of Starkdale may become members of the church through one of the following methods: The first is by a letter of transfer (i.e. transferring their membership from the church they are presently attending to ours). The second is by reaffirmation of faith (i.e. having been without a church for a period of time, a person may request to reaffirm their faith in Jesus Christ by joining the church.) The third is by profession of faith (i.e. the person was never a member of any church, but now is seeking membership at Starkdale). The fourth is by affiliation (i.e. the person may keep his or her membership active in their original church, but choose to associate himself or herself with the Starkdale church). This fourth method entitles affiliate members to all privileges and responsibilities of the church except voting on issues.

Church giving is strictly a private matter between God and the individual. It is kept confidential by two people (the secretary and the treasurer). Not even pastors are given information on who is contributing to God's work and how much.

For a flavor of what we say and do together in Christ's name, and for photos, please go to our website (www.starkdale.org)

If you wish for a pastoral visit to learn more, please contact me on my cell (740) 632-0414.

I hope this is helpful to church members as well as church friends and regular worship guests.

Together we can make the positive spiritual difference in people's minds and hearts.

God bless,

6 A message from our Pastor of Visitation—Rev. Tom Bullard

So, Christmas is over and a new year has begun. I hope you all have some good memories, even though I know for some of you there was sorrow and heartache this past year. Our hearts go out to you, and you are in our prayers.

My family and I have a friend whom we have known for years. She is now in a nursing home. We went to visit her on Christmas Day. We visited with her and sang some Christmas carols. When we asked her what her favorite Christmas song was, she replied “Santa Claus is Coming to Town”. So we sang that one, too.

I have been back to see her since then. She loves to talk about our time together on Christmas. She is 99 years old and her grandchildren live in Florida and in Columbus. They called but were unable to visit. She has no other family.

As one who goes to the nursing home frequently, I know that for those who can remember, they hang on to those memories of Christmas for a long time. Sometimes they tell these stories about their Christmas over and over again.

Sadly, some folks never have anyone come to visit them. Oh, the nursing home staff make a big fuss over them, but the fact is, they still miss their families and friends. They are sad and lonely. So as the new year begins let us resolve not to forget the shut-ins and those in the nursing home. First a card, a call can brighten their day. Visiting them is a great thing to do. I realize how hard it is for us to get out of our comfort zone. I understand that going to a nursing home can be depressing. And, sometimes, we do not like the sights, sounds, or the smell. We get there and we are not sure what to say.

I have found that talking about family, friends, television shows, food, and memories are good things. And at the end of the visit ask if you can pray for them. First saying, “God bless Jim, or John, or Betty or Jane”, do that and you have said a prayer. You can do it.

Finally, remember Jesus words: “If you have done it unto the least of these, you have done it unto me. Matthew 25:45.

Peace and Love,

Pastor Tom

A VERY SPECIAL TESTIMONY

Dear Friends and Family,

This year has been a crazy and amazing year all rolled into one. As most of you know in July our son, Owen, was diagnosed with stage IV Burkitt’s Lymphoma. We have been very blessed that we are local to Monroe Carrell Jr. Vanderbilt Children’s Hospital and they have an amazing pediatric oncology program. Our doctors were very aggressive and on the ball from day 1 of his diagnosis.

It has been a very rough path for us and especially for him but he has handled it amazingly. The beauty of his age (just turned 5) is that he doesn’t know anything different so this has just become a fact of his life. Although most of the time it isn’t fun, he has been such a trooper that we are constantly awed by him. He has finished seven (out of nine) rounds of chemo and he just keeps on trucking.

There have been many ups and downs on this journey but by far the greatest day was when we found out (after round 5) that his cancer was GONE!! It is a true miracle! Our doctors have always been cautiously optimistic but they were even surprised at the amazing response his body had to the chemo. I just stared at the doctor and cried when he told me, I couldn’t even say anything that would encompass my feelings of gratitude and happiness.

Since then our road has been smooth sailing with a few potholes along the way. Just knowing there is an end in sight helps so much. Over the next year only time will tell if he is able to remain cancer free so we just hope and pray this remains the case.

We are so hopeful and happy about the coming year and what it may bring for our family.

Love,

The Badens (Rich, Ali, Owen, and Alex)

Robbie France is Owen’s great grandmother.

The 2013 Live Nativity presented by Starkdale EPC was a great success. Over 450 friends and visitors to Starkdale began their journey at the "Inn of Bethlehem" staffed once again by the innkeepers wives. This year, guests were asked to "register" for the census as they signed the visitor book at the "Inn" under the watchful eye of the Roman soldier. Each was given a coin to present to the tax collector as they entered the sanctuary led by an exuberant shepherd where three field shepherds waited to share the good news of the birth of the baby. Olivia Chanoski, Keith Murdock and the Starkdale Adult Choir sang the good news of the Saviors birth. Visitors were then led by other shepherds to the manger where Mary and Joseph watched over the newborn baby. The three kings presented a small gift to each visitor as they listened to the beautiful angels singing familiar Christmas carols. Some visitors even joined in the singing. Guests were then led back to the 21st century where warm beverages and snacks awaited them in the fellowship hall. This was the third annual Live Nativity and we hope there will be many more as this wonderful evening is becoming a Holiday tradition with many area residents. Great job and many thanks to the organizers, cast and crew of the Live Nativity.

8 THE PER-CAPITA: Several of you have requested information about the per-capita amount that each member of Starkdale is asked to contribute to the Presbytery of Alleghenies this year. The amount is $23.00 (for Presbytery needs) and $10.00 (for denominational mission). Total per-member is $33.00. Please make your donations payable to Starkdale Presbyterian Church and mark it "Per Capita". WE THANK YOU!

Hank Vinco joined his sons, Danny and Tony, and brother Livio, in an attempt to set the Guinness World Record for consecutive hours playing bocce ball. Sponsored by the Upper Key Sons and Daughters of Italy, the event was held November 9 at the Key Largo, Florida, Civic Club.

The Vinco family played continuously for 24 hours and 29 minutes and is now awaiting word from Guinness Records to find out if they indeed set the record.

The event was also a fund raiser for the Burton Memorial Food Bank.

WINTER WORSHIP

It is winter in Ohio, so we should expect cold and snowy weather, and we certainly understand many folks not being able to get out to church on Sunday morning. But....don't make it a habit. Sunday morning attendance at worship service has taken the usual winter dip, but try to get here if you can. When you think about your week with and without Sunday morning worship service we are sure you will agree that the week goes much better when we honor God with our time to worship Him and encourage the family of God on Sunday morning for an hour or two. A program on WORD 101.5 FM recently reported that the same chemicals that are released during exercise, walking in the sunlight, or other pleasurable activities are released by the brain during worship and times of intimate prayer with God the Father, Jesus the Son, and the Holy Spirit. No wonder we feel so much better after an hour spent in His presence. And, of course, we don't worship just for our own well being, but because this is our whole reason for being:

Ecclesiastes 12:13

"Now all has been heard; here is the conclusion of the matter: Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the duty of all mankind."

Of course, we know that the term "fear God" in this passage means to have complete respect for our creator, to love Him, honor Him, obey Him, and worship Him. So this Sunday, set your clock like it's a summer morning and trust that the weather will not impede your travel to Starkdale EPC! We look forward to seeing you this Sunday!

Dear Rev. Makari and the Starkdale Presbyterian Church:

Thank you for your kindness, support, and allowing us to utilize your beautiful church for our balloon release. A special thanks to "Helen" who stayed after a long day to help me with making this a welcoming day for our hospice families. You are wonderful people!

Sincerely,

Debbie Yoklic—Charity Hospice

The Salvation army would like to express its sincere thank you for your generous donation of $500.00 to help those in need during this Christmas season and throughout the year. Your donation couldn't have come at a better time. Your faithful support allows us to continue to "meet needs at the point of need"

Clients are forced to either purchase food, buy their medicines, or pay a bill. There are so many children whose parents are struggling, so your help is greatly appreciated.

Thank you and may the Lord bless you and keep you.

Sincerely,

Dear Starkdale Church,

I have to say that big bag of paper products and coffee, tea, foil, etc., was probably the most unique and most needed of all. Thanks so much for all your thoughtfulness and prayers during Arnold's illness. You are a wonderful and caring group.

Love and many thanks,
Patty Dennis and family,
Thank you! Jeff and Jen,

Thank you for your donation of $250.00 to The Valley Hospice Foundation. It ensures that Valley Hospice can continue to provide the help and support needed by so many patients and families who face life limiting illnesses. Valley Hospice has always provided care to anyone in need of our service, regardless of their ability to pay. This would not be possible without the generosity of donors like you.

Thank you,

“KIDS ROCK” KICK-OFF

The “Kids Rock” Children’s Ministry Kick-off on January 5th was really a blessing! Sixteen children from Kindergarten through the 4th grade enjoyed learning motions and words to the Live Group Children’s Curriculum theme song “Into the Bible.” The pizza snack time was fun and the children talked and shared together and seemed so happy to see that many of their school friends were there. Prizes were given at game time and Bible discovery boxes were decorated by each child for use each week as children begin to discover God’s Word in the Bible. They also decided on group names for Bible time which is held upstairs in the Bible Classroom. The discovery crew groups are: Challenger Crew, Discovery Crew, Adventure Crew, and Genesis Crew. The leaders are Janice Whitaker, Director. Group Leaders are Caitlin Heiss, Priscilla Ofca, Jamie Stewart and Toni Zajdowicz. There are now 25 children registered for the program and we are enjoying the children and all the energy, love, and excitement they bring to the Church. The following is the February lesson schedule. February 2: Jesus is God; February 9: Veggie Tales-movie; February 16: Jesus Wants to be Your Friend; February 23: “Kids Rock” Bowling night with SYM (meet at church at 5:30 p.m.). All children Kindergarten through 4th grade, are invited to join us on Sunday evenings at 6:00 to 7:15 PM. The older children ages 5th through 12th grade meet in another area of the church at the same time. There is something for every child and youth!

Blessings,
Janice Whitaker, Director
