STARKDALE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

A MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR:

Dear Starkdale Family, (members and friends), I continue to envision Starkdale all-member-participation in ministry. Can you imagine what it would be like if all talents and convictions of our congregation are put to a good ministerial use? We have six commissions (Administration, Evangelism, Fellowship, Nurture, Outreach, and Worship). Each of these commissions is in great need for workers. A list of the responsibilities of each commission, which may be copied and sent to you, is available at the church office.

Here is an idea: If you haven't yet been asked to serve in any capacity, read the list, see where your talents may be used effectively, and contact the elder or deacon in charge; let them know that you would like to be part of their team.

There is a saying that I heard once or twice in America, which I never forgot and which I have often experienced it to be true: "If the followers lead, the leaders will follow." This is true of any church. When a church congregation is enthused about ministry and is willing to give of themselves selflessly to the work of the church, church leaders have no choice but to follow in their lead.

I urge you then to help Starkdale acquire the fire of the early Pentecost, to let it fuel us with the power of God's Spirit and energize us to do things we never thought possible. Let us permit this fire of Pentecost to spread wildly into our communities. Let us let the wind of God's Spirit carry its flames to every home and every street in our area. Let this fire of God's Spirit keep us from "taking the back seat" and falling into to sleep, especially in a time when all the forces of evil are fully awake. In other words, let us become on fire for our Lord, become spiritually contagious, so community people can experience the need for God's life-giving Spirit and desire the saving grace of our Savior. Let us receive anew the flames of the first Pentecost, which not even Rome with its might, could put out.

Among the major priorities of our elders and deacons for this year are intentional efforts for more evangelism, a wider range of Christian fellowship, home visitation by officers and church members, increased financial support, more wonderful opportunities for biblical knowledge and understanding, and a community youth ministry that would bring many youths to the Lord.

I have to admit that since I became a pastor in 1975, I haven't seen the excitement and joy about Christ's ministry that I see here. It is becoming more appealing to some of us to invite non church goers to our church. The friendship and the warmth you share every Sunday is a big plus for our fellowship and for meeting new people. The midweek Bible study, to which many of you keep bringing friends, has grown beyond my expectations.

It is amazing how God has graciously gathered a group of Catholics, Greek Orthodox, Methodists, Baptists, Presbyterians ... etc. to meet weekly for fellowship in the Word.

Thank you for fanning the flame of faith. Thank you for being the type of faithful witnesses that you are. Thank you for being an invaluable part of the Starkdale team.

Sincerely,

Philip Manari

Question: "Why does God allow bad things to happen to good people?"

Answer: This is one of the most difficult questions in all of theology. God is eternal, infinite, omniscient, omnipresent, and omnipotent. Why should human beings (not eternal, infinite, omniscient, omnipresent, or omnipotent) expect to be able to fully understand God's ways? The book of Job deals with this issue. God had allowed Satan to do everything he wanted to Job except kill him. What was Job's reaction? "Though he slay me, yet will I hope in him" (Job 13:15). "The LORD gave and the LORD has taken away; may the name of the LORD be praised" (Job 1:21). Job did not understand why God had allowed the things He did, but he knew God was good and therefore continued to trust in Him. Ultimately, that should be our reaction as well.

Why do bad things happen to good people? The biblical answer is there are no "good" people. The Bible makes it abundantly clear that all of us are tainted by and infected with sin (Ecclesiastes 7:20; Romans 6:23; 1 John 1:8). Romans 3:10-18 could not be clearer about the non-existence of "good" people: "There is no one righteous, not even one; there is no one who understands, no one who seeks God. All have turned away, they have together become worthless; there is no one who does good, not even one. Their throats are open graves; their tongues practice deceit. The poison of vipers is on their lips. Their mouths are full of cursing and bitterness. Their feet are swift to shed blood; ruin and misery mark their ways, and the way of peace they do not know. There is no fear of God before their eyes." Every human being on this planet deserves to be thrown into hell at this very moment. Every second we spend alive is only by the grace and mercy of God. Even the most terrible misery we could experience on this planet is merciful compared to what we deserve, eternal hell in the lake of fire.

A better question would be "Why does God allow good things to happen to bad people?" Romans 5:8 declares, "But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us." Despite the evil, wicked, sinful nature of the people of this world, God still loves us. He loved us enough to die to take the penalty for our sins (Romans 6:23). If we receive Jesus Christ as Savior (John 3:16; Romans 10:9), we will be forgiven and promised an eternal home in heaven (Romans 8:1). What we deserve is hell. What we are given is eternal life in heaven if we come to Christ in faith.

Yes, sometimes bad things happen to people who seem undeserving of them. But God allows things to happen for His reasons, whether or not we understand them. Above all, however, we must remember that God is good, just, loving, and merciful. Often things happen to us that we simply cannot understand. However, instead of doubting God's goodness, our reaction should be to trust Him. "Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight" (Proverbs 3:5-6).

The two weekly Bible Study groups are presently studying this very subject as they work through the book of Job. Please join them on Tuesday morning at 10 a.m. or Wednesday evening at 6:00 p.m.

Awesome Dad's Top Ten Ways To Be The Foundation of Your Family

by Dovid Grossman and Ken Mossman

Awesome Dads

Part of the responsibility of being a father is to establish a strong foundation for the family. Just like a building foundation, much of this work goes unseen and rarely gets acknowledged, yet the strength and integrity of the entire structure relies on it. The following intentions, although not always perfectly fulfilled, give us guidance in our mission.

Grounded in Reality

While my children may put me on a pedestal, I have my feet firmly on the ground and acknowledge my own strengths and weaknesses.

Demonstrative Love

I take the time to know and understand the best way to communicate my love to each and every child. My children see my love for my wife clearly expressed.

Mutual Respect.

By honoring and never ridiculing the thoughts, emotions and actions of my family, each member clearly experiences and understands my great respect for them.

Consistently Predictable.

My family is comforted and anchored by my predictability. My deepest values are consistently demonstrated in my speech and behavior.

Predictable Spontaneity.

My family knows that I am extremely curious and love to explore and learn. My spontaneity is consistent. We plan with flexibility, and the children look forward to unexpected adventures.

Responsible.

My children see how I prepare and follow through, owning up to my responsibilities. They learn by my example.

Safety/Security

I take safety very seriously and my children know it. They have learned by my examples, for instance: I always wear a helmet when skating, skiing or bicycle riding, and I take first-aid and CPR classes. Our car does not go into motion until all seat belts, including mine, are on.

Advocate

My children know that I stand behind them and will protect, defend and honor them at all times. I do not discuss my children's failings with others.

Serious Humor

I deliberately use humor liberally to lighten stress and lubricate relationships to ensure a cohesive family.

WYSIWYG What you see is what you get.

I practice what I preach and that includes accepting human frailty and mistakes. The greatest foundation for a family is living with integrity.

HOW GREAT THOU ART

Words by Carl Boberg

Translated and arranged by Stuart Hine

Music: Traditional Swedish folk Melody

O Lord my God! When I in awesome wonder
Consider all the worlds thy hands have made,
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
Thy pow'r thro'-out the universe displayed.

Carl Boberg

When thro' the woods and forest glades I wander,
And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees;
When I look down from lofty mountain grandeur,
And hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze;

And when I think that God, his Son not sparing,
Sent him to die, I scarce can take it in;
That on the cross, my burden gladly bearing,
He bled and died to take away my sin;

Stuart Hine

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation,
And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart!
Then I shall bow in humble adoration,
And there proclaim, my God, how great thou art!

REFRAIN:

Then sings my soul, my Savior God to thee;
How great thou art, how great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Savior God to thee;
How great thou art, how great thou art

Swedish minister, Carl Boberg, wrote the poem this hymn is based on in 1885. It was later that he found out the words had been set to a Swedish folk melody and eventually translated into German and Russian. Stuart Hine and his wife were doing missionary work in the Ukraine when they heard it.

Stuart Hine, was so moved he modified and expanded the words and made his own arrangement of the Swedish melody. He later said his first three verses were inspired, line upon line, by Russia's rugged Carpathian Mountains. This first verse was composed when he was caught in a thunderstorm in a Carpathian village, the second as he heard the birds sing near the Romanian border, and the third as he witnessed many of the Carpathian mountain-dwellers coming to Christ. The final verse was written by Dr. Hine, after he returned to Great Britain.

Billy Graham was given a pamphlet with the hymn during a 1954 crusade. He liked it so much that he shared it with his team and the rest is "history."

Notes taken from: Then Sings My Soul by Robert J. Morgan and Hymns of faith & Inspiration from Ideals.

The Semi-Annual Chicken Grill held on May 15 at Starkdale was another great success. Below is a photo journal of the great fun and fellowship enjoyed by all! Thanks to EVERYONE who made the event a success and to Sharon Petrilla and Russ Grimm for these great photos!

BEAVER CREEK CAMP is looking for a craft/activities director for the summer program (July and August). Applicants should be at least eighteen years old, and experience with children is a plus. For more information, call 330-385-3662 or 330-385-4729.

BEAVER CREEK BLITZ: Save this date: Saturday, June 5. Beginning at 9 a.m., there will be a work day at Beaver Creek church camp. There are many projects, and we can use all the help we can get. MISSION TRIP: Upper Ohio Valley Presbytery is going to the Pine Ridge Reservation, South Dakota, this August 12-18, for a mission work trip involving physical labor, and space is limited. The retreat center in Pine Ridge can only accommodate 15 people and interest is building quickly. For those who may not know, Pine Ridge Reservation is one of the poorest reservations in the country with 85% unemployment. It is also where Wounded Knee is located. We will fly into Rapid City, SD, and rent vans to take us to the retreat center. If you are interested in going on this mission trip, an application form is available on our website: www.uovpresby.org. Return it to the Presbytery Office before Friday, June 11, 2010. The cost of the trip is to be shared by the person going, the home church, and the presbytery. The home church and person will be expected to pay $300 each. The presbytery mission committee will assume the balance of the cost. One thing that you need to be aware of is the baggage cost for flying. It will be paid by each individual and will be $25 for the first bag and $35 for the second. Pack light! Minors applying must be 16 years of age or older at the time of the trip.

The Adult Dart Baseball team challenged the Starkdale Presbyterian Youth to a “Dart Baseball Challenge” on Sunday Evening, May 23rd.

FLOCK TALK

Lillian Kestner, vice president of the Town and Country Women's Golf League recently held their first meeting of the 2010 golf season at Eat 'n Park in Steubenville. New members are always welcome to join the league. More information is available by calling 537-3270.

Abigail Kinney and her class mates at John Gregg Elementary School celebrated Earth Day in May by helping to save a tree near their school's playground. The 10 year old tree had exposed roots, so the pupils worked together to cover the roots with dirt and mulch.

The Ohio Valley Hospital/Trinity School of Nursing Alumni Association are working toward the goal of erecting a display memorial honoring the school of nursing. Starkdale members Ella Jane Burns (class of 1953), and Suzie Rousey (class of 1959), were recently pictured in the Herald Star as they looked over old photos that are being considered for the display. The association meets twice a year at Starkdale. All graduates are encouraged to attend this bi-annual covered dish event. Dues to belong to the association are only $7 a year. Call 282-6502 for more information.

Speaking of Nurses, another professional nurse and member of Starkdale, Jill Wickham, met recently with Respiratory Care officials from Trinity Medical Center West. Jill Wickham, RN, is the Indian Creek School district nurse. The goal of the new program "Peak Performance USA" is to educate and provide staff with the tools and resources they may need to help children manage asthma. We can all breathe easier knowing Jill is taking such good care of our students.

The "Mary Coleman Academic Scholarship" has been established by Mr. Peter Sontag for a graduate from Steubenville High School. Mr. Sontag is celebrating his 50th anniversary this year of his arrival in Steubenville from Austria. Mrs. Coleman was one of Peter's English teachers who helped shape his linguistic abilities and foundation for success. The scholarship is designed to enable deserving high school students at Steubenville High School to continue their education at the appropriate institute of higher learning of their choice. Anita Cunningham received the scholarship at the scholars banquet on Sunday afternoon, May 16.

Franklin C. Merryman has been promoted to Operations Industrial Engineer in the Akron Processing and Distribution Center of the U.S. Postal Service. Congratulations!!

Congratulations to Michael Freshwater who was named April's Student of the Month at Indian Creek Junior High School.
